

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1895.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give over his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

Upon this Leader for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following threat:

For Notices of Marriages

Marriages, divorces, or other public intimacies where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., The Leader will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the standard rule. This, however, is all.

Do Not Include

Notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for notices in this Leader is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—six times—the bill is $10.00. A controversy, followed probably by an angry feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "full paid" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Mason and Lewis counties compose the Thirty-first Senatorial District of Kentucky; and by common courtesy, not to say common decency, it has been the practice of both political parties to choose candidates from each county alternately.

Two years ago, when it was Mason county's turn to name the Republican candidate, she put forward Captain M. C. HITCHINS.

After the Convention had assembled in the Courthouse in this city, and when the nomination of Captain HITCHINS meant his election, and was fully determined upon, he was induced to withdraw in favor of the Hon. SAMUEL J. PECK of Lewis, who was nominated and elected.

That sacrifice on the part of Mason county unquestionably resulted in the elevation of Judge PECK to Congress—a consummation of which no one is prouder than the writer.

In this year of grace 1895 Mason was again entitled to name the Senatorial candidate; and it was generally understood by those prominent in Lewis county politics that this county would present a candidate at the proper time.

It was known to a great many in both counties that the writer's name would be presented before the Convention, and it was known to none better than to the Lewis county person who went about declaring that no one in Mason county wanted the nomination, that he would not ask for it if they did, and finally that he was the only individual that could be found who would accept the honor, even if tendered on a silver salver!

Pursuing this course, supplemented with a promise of payment to a large number of persons, he succeeded in packing the Courthouse last Saturday afternoon; and with a program that was "out and dried," in the hands of a Chairman whose rulings were of the most outrageous character, he managed to secure "instructions" for himself, thus probably insuring his nomination by the District Convention to be held here next Saturday.

THE PUBLIC LEADER will support any Mason county man who is honestly nominated by that Convention. It will not support Mr. RUMMANS of Lewis county if he is nominated, and if that fails the party, it will use every honorable effort to secure the election of his opponent.

"I am still a Republican."

Kentucky has been divided into two Dioceses by the Episcopal Convention, in session at Minneapolis.

The Warm and the Healing Springs of Virginia, which are on the line of the C. and O., have closed for the season.

Rev. J. C. Burkholder, for several years a Baptist Minister at Elizabethtown, has joined the Methodist Church.

A K. of P. Lodge will be instituted at Millersburg on November 20th. Phantom Lodge of Lexington will confer the Degree.

W. L. Sutherland, formerly of this city and a member of our late baseball team, has been appointed Postmaster at Escalapa Springs.

Mr. John M. Foxworth and family of Mt. Carmel will this week move to this city, taking up their residence on East Third street in the house belonging to Mr. James H. Hall.

If you want anything, give your home merchant the preference. If he has not got what you need, he will send for it. In addition to this he will sell to you cheaper than you can purchase elsewhere.

Colonel Samuel R. Bullock of New York has purchased the Paducah Water works. Price is kept a secret. The stock of the company is valued at $150,000, and the bonded indebtedness is $100,000.

Water is so scarce at Lancaster that it is stolen at night from the cisterns of those who are fortunate enough to have a supply. The washerwomen at that place combined Monday, hired a two horse wagon and drove three miles to Dix Creek for water.

Lat and Welcome Clark, confined in Jail at Lancaster for housebreaking, secure themselves by attempting to commit suicide. A short time ago one took an ounce of laudanum, and was saved. The other recently drank a quart of coal oil, but was rescued.

James H. Barnett, aged 52, committed suicide by shooting himself at Lexington. He failed in business and was threatened with a suit, which his friends believed caused him to commit the deed. He shot himself in a grocery hallway, having gone out the back way after taking a drink at the bar.

The Cumberland River Association will continue to let its members drink intoxicating liquors as a beverage. A resolution was presented by attempting to form a union with other churches that suffers its members to "make, sell or drink intoxicating liquors," but a motion was made to strike out the word drink.

H. P. Whilaker, through his attorney, Harvey Meyers, entered suit in the Circuit Court at Covington against the C. and O. and Big Sandy Railroad Companies and the Huntington Bridge Company for $12,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by his property on Eleventh street by reason of the operations of the defendants.

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock some thoughtless person threw a lighted cigar stump into a clump of dry bushes just West of the Newlands residence, and it wasn't long until the blizzard was in a blaze. Two young men who happened to be in that vicinity beat the fire out after it had burned a number of panels of fencing and damaged the garden. People should be careful how they handle fire out in the woods in this dry weather.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic Name a Winner For State Senator.

Saturday afternoon the Democrats of Mason and Lewis met at the Courthouse in this city and nominated Hon. Thomas B. Harrison of Lewis county for State Senator.

It was Lewis county's turn to nominate, and the courtesy was accorded with grace and decency.

Mr. Harrison is one of the best citizens of his county, and his election is already assured.

As matters stand now, Tom Lindsay will cheerfully support him, and it will guarantee him 100 Republican votes in Mason county.

Hon. H. T. Tyler is billed for a Democratic speech here next Friday.

Ex-Governor John B. McCreary is announced to speak in this city next Monday.

Adams Bros, doctors of Vaneburg, assigned Saturday to Dr. T. S. Clark. Assets $2,500, liabilities $1,200.

With but little care and no trouble the beard and mustache can be kept a uniform brown or black color by using Buckingham's Dye for the whiskers.

The Wesleyan College football team of Winchester defeated the Kentucky University eleven Saturday by the score of 24 to 0.

Lewis county Republicans selected delegates Saturday to the Senatorial Convention and sent them with instructions to favor Mason county's choice. Let 'er go at that!

An unusual spectacle presented itself in the Courthouse at Flemingsburg Saturday. Three boys, Alfred, John and Willie Crawford, aged 7, 9 and 11 years, were on trial charged with criminally assaulting a five year old girl. It is claimed that the case was the result of ill feelings between older persons. After an examining trial lasting nearly all day the boys were dismissed.

Colonel W. O. Bradley will speak at the Courthouse in this city next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Thomas Whalen Dies.

Thomas Whalen, the poor unfortunate who was struck by an electric car in the Sixth Ward Friday night, died last night. He was but a great deal worse than was at first supposed, he having four other ribs on the left side crushed besides the two on the right side, his spine was injured and he was also injured internally.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

One of the Dirty Methods to Defeat the Recent Majority.

At Saturday's meeting at the Court house Douglas P. Ort and Tom Forman were rival candidates for Chairman.

The Formalities insisted that the Court house be cleared and that a vote be taken by tellers as the crowd came in.

The friends of Mr. Ort wanted the vote taken as the crowd passed out.

However, they all went out, tellers were placed at each door and the crowd began coming in.

At the West door—the Foreman gang was corralled—they got through much sooner than at the East door, and the tellers from the West door went up to the Secretary's table with their tally sheets.

Here was a chance, and it was improved.

The Formalities began going out singly and in twos and threes and coming in through the East door and being counted a second time!

That's how Mr. Ort was beaten. After this piece of dirt was allowed to go unchallenged, the gang took the bit and rode rough-shod over everything, once the Chairman actually sustaining his own decision when it was appealed from!

However, this was too much and one of the decent members of that crowd advised the chair that he was going it a little strong, when he granted the appeal and put the question to the house.

It was voted on as the former vote had been taken, only that this time the gang insisted that the vote be taken as the crowd passed out—just the reverse of their former contention!

Not less was done because of the fact that not less than fifty of Mr. Davis's supporters had left the house, supposing that the vote taken for Chair was "settled."

Comment is unnecessary.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM!

Driftwood Gathered and Split for Ledger Patrons.

The H. K. Bedford has extended her trips as far up as Portsmouth.

The M. P. Wells has taken the place of the Silver Wave in the Maysville Portsmouth trade.

The steamer Ruth will in all probabilities be remodeled before she is put into service again.

There will be Pittsburgh coal to throw away this winter. Thirty million bushels or more with 52 towboats hitched to it are at Pittsburgh waiting for water to come out on.

The little steamer Neptune that passed down the Ohio, had on board a jolly crowd of pilots who have been studying the character of the Ohio river between Cincinnati and Wheeling.

Portsmouth Bids.—The river is falling, the stage now being 24. Captain Bay says he never saw anything like the present season of low water. His boats, which are of light draft, have been laid up since May 1st.

Our City A. falling: Pittsburgh 5.5, stationary; Day Island Dam, 1.7, stationary; Wheeling 1.9, falling; Parkersburg 1.6 rising; Hinton 9, stationary; Charleston 4.5, stationary; Point Pleasant 1.3, falling; Catfishburg 2.4, falling; Portsmouth 9.0, falling.

Ashland Zee.—"Appropos of the recent agitation of the river pilot question, it is only the lack of enforcement of the shanty boat laws of the United States that allows the business to flourish as it does. Each state has decisive laws that if enforced would practically kill the business from the start."

Thirteen packets are now laid up in the vicinity of Cincinnati on account of low water, as follows: The City of Louisville, New South and Hudson, at the Marina Ways; the State of Kansas and Shelby out on the ways; the Congo, Boston, Toledo and the Tacoma at the foot of Niagara street; the Bonanza and Buckeye State at the foot of Main street; the John K. Speed at Sedalsville, and the Scotia at Riverside. All the boats are being put in condition for the coming season. The Shelby will be off the ways on Wednesday, and the State of Kansas a few days later.

THE OLD BELL.

Relic of the Revolution Carried Through the South.

Reverently Earnest Thousands Pay Tributes of Homage to the Bell.

Sunday-schools and Educational Institutions Turned Out and Filled it With Flowers and Bells. Patriotic Songs The Bell in Knoxville on Sunday.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 7.—Like a benediction the Liberty Bell was sped through the lovely Raccoon valley, over the rugged Blue Ridge mountains and down through the picturesque valley of east Tennessee. Over twenty thousand have paid their tribute of homage to the venerated relic. Sunday-schools of all denominations have been marshaled by their pastors, educational institutions have turned out the youth and beauty of Virginia and Tennessee, and bullet coursed ex-confederates have walked side by side with the A. R. veterans uncovers their heads in silent but deeply sincere.

Truly it has been a wonderful day. From Roanoke, Va., where the party spent Saturday night, the progress of the relic has been continuous. At every cross-road men, women and children stand with uncovered heads and waved flags as the train drew past. Church bells tolled and children pelted the bell with flowers. At Elliston a great-grandson of Patrick Henry, himself a white-haired man of 72 years, pressed forward and craved permission to touch the bell. Here a full Sunday-school sang a patriotic song.

At Christiansburg the boys of the Blackhawk military academy stood in line, a guard of honor. There was a great crowd at East River, where Mayor Warwick and Thomas L. Hicks made brief addresses to a concourse of public school children. At Marion, made Springs and Andrews the celebration were all out, and between them were knots of people at every mountain cabin.

It was left for Bristol, half in Virginia and half in Tennessee, to turn out a crowd that overflowed the railroad station and stretched out as far as every direction as the train neared. Volunteer firemen acted as guards while Mayor Winston, of the Virginia side, and Mayor Anderson, of the Tennessee side, joined the well-known. Girls from the Southwest Virginia institute sang a hymn and placed a banner of black and gold on the bell. Then they clambered over the car each one touching the bell. A line was formed and for two hours a steady stream of people of all ages, emotions and social standing passed across in front of the bell.

On to Johnson City, Tenn., was the next run. Here 900 people met the train and sang and pelted the bell with flowers. Every house and even the street cars showed the national colors. Another brief stop was made at Jonesboro, the ancient capital city of the one-time state of Franklin, which was part of Tennessee. A mass of people of all ages and of all social standing gathered in front of the train and for two hours a steady stream of people of all ages, emotions and social standing passed across in front of the bell.

At Greenville, the home and last resting place of Andrew Johnson, there was another dignified ovation. At Morristown, the home of the great and good old man, the old man and his family were met by a crowd of hundreds of children joined. It was dark when Knoxville was reached, but people swarmed on the bridge over the railroad and into the big railroad freight yards, where the bell car was to be housed. There was no formal reception, but Mayor Thompson, with the board of aldermen received the party. Monday evening was committed to the Daughters of the Revolution and other patriotic organizations. The crash of people was tremendous and the patriotic police, quartered in a line, and until nearly midnight there was a steady stream of people around the bell. KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

PROLONGED DROUGHT.

Stock Near Danville Has to Be Driven Several Miles for Water.

DANVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—This region of Kentucky is suffering from a prolonged drought. A good-looking rain has not fallen for weeks and water for all uses is becoming alarmingly scarce. Farmers living any distance from the larger streams are in bad shape, as the little creeks, springs, etc., have gone dry and stock has to be driven from three to five miles to water. Some of the farmers living in that section of this county through which the water works main to Dix's river passes have tapped the pipe line and put in meters, and will hereafter depend upon that source for their water supply. One singular feature of the drought is that a number of springs which had gone dry and remained so for a week or more have commenced to run again. "Old inhabitant" says this is a positive sign that rain will fall very soon.

NOT OVER YET.

Great Britain Still Retains Her Warships in China.

Another Demand to Be Presented to Viceroy Chang Chieh Tung.

Relative to the Inquiry into the Kinkang Massacre—A Strange Feature Is That the Demand Is Made to the Viceroy and Not Through Pekin.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Though the foreign office professes to be satisfied with the full and prompt acceptance by the Peking government of the ultimatum forwarded to it by the British government, demanding the degradation of Liu Ping Chang, viceroy of Sze Chuen, for his connection with Sze Chuen riots, the trouble growing out of the overt hostility of the Chinese to British subjects is not over. The movements of the British squadron in the Yangtze-Kiang show that the tension in the relations between Great Britain and China has hardly been lessened by the punishment of Liu Ping Chang. Vice Admiral Buller, instead of ceasing to demonstrate the pressure that is being brought to bear on the Peking government, keeps under orders the British war ships at every point where they were stationed before the Yangtze-Kiang. Buller recently conceded the British demands. The war ship Aolus has gone to Wu Chang, where Vice Admiral Buller is to be present to present to Chang Chieh Tung, the viceroy, the demands relative to the inquiry into the Kinkang massacre. Chang Chieh Tung is a notorious hater of foreigners, and Wu Chang is the center of the production of the pamphlets and placards inciting the populace to murder the Europeans. "Over the act of hostility that would justify Great Britain in demanding his dismissal from office can be traced to him, despite his known antipathy to foreigners.

The exact nature of the demands that will be presented to him has not been made known. A strong feature of Vice Admiral Buller's mission is that he is directed to deliver the British dispatches directly to Chang Chieh Tung instead of negotiating through Peking. It is expected by the foreign office that the viceroy will concede the demands.

Prime Minister Salisbury has directed Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British minister to China, to expedite his return to London. Sir Nicholas will be in St. Petersburg as ambassador in connection with the C. C. Lewis case. He will be in London in November, when a new minister to China will be appointed.

FLOOR COLLAPSES.

Terrible Accident at E. L. Linn, O., Under the Laying of a Church Foundation.

ELYRIA, O., Oct. 7.—During the religious services of laying the cornerstone of the new building here, a floor collapsed, killing three people and injuring many others. The collapse occurred under the laying of the cornerstone. The building was under construction. The collapse occurred under the laying of the cornerstone. The building was under construction. The collapse occurred under the laying of the cornerstone. The building was under construction.

The services were just about to begin when the accident happened. Fully three thousand persons were assembled on and around the platform which had been constructed across the foundation of the edifice. The boards forming the temporary floor had been laid across the joists, which were supported in the middle by upright posts. These supports broke and the floor went down with a crash.

Every body who was on the platform was paralyzed by the calamity, but soon there was a rush forward by those willing to lend assistance to the crushed and straggling. The crowd was so dense that it was impossible to get to the victims. The bodies of the three who were killed were found in the hole upon those who went down with the floor. The confusion and the work of rescue was begun at once, and all were finally taken from the pit.

Kelling, middle aged, injured internally; John Fieldkamp, hurt internally; Mrs. Kate Dickel, both legs hurt and hurt internally; Mrs. Margaret Mosler, hurt internally.
